_____ (Initial Here)

Chalk About It is a fundraising event designed to support the programs of Life Essentials. Life Essentials is a mental health agency that provides professionally delivered services which enhance the quality of life for vulnerable adults through intensive advocacy and recovery oriented programing. Life Essentials vision is "helping people and transforming lives". Chalk About It is designed to underscore the importance to accessing services if needed without the burden of stigma. Chalk About It volunteer artists are asked to create work that positively involves mental health treatment, access and the elimination of stigma. Works should be "hopeful", "positive", "affirming", "recovery" etc. Works may not include the use of copy written materials, or images that are gruesome or negatively portray mental health or treatment.
